Introducing "In It Together"

Since the 1970's, Fine Fare has helped families serve meals and have helped to keep the pantry stocked with familiar foods.

NOW!

Fine Fare has planned an event unlike anything we have ever initiated. We are bringing ethnicities together in celebration of America's diverse heritage, and it is all called "In It Together".

Visit our stores during the month of March

Look for:

- even more competitive pricing on major brands
- extra hot deals in our circular and special in store signwork to help identify the items.
- the chance to get a free "In It Together" reusable shopping bag with purchase of any participating products

Our stores support a diverse group of ethnicities whose heritage, beliefs, and cultural values vary by neighborhood. That's why we invite you to visit your neighborhood Fine Fare store to take part in "In It Together."

Remember we're all "In it Together!"
